Undergraduate Instructional Program

Notes: These flowcharts represent the logic of each of the six all-inclusive classifications. The numbers in the boxes indicate how many institutions are in that category. These numbers are approximate. Special focus institutions are only included in the Basic and Enrollment Profile Classifications. For detailed information regarding the classification methodology, please see the Methodology section on the Classification website.
Graduate Instructional Program
Part 1: Institutions without doctoral programs

Notes: These flowcharts represent the logic of each of the six all-inclusive classifications. The numbers in the boxes indicate how many institutions are in that category. These numbers are approximate. Special focus institutions are only included in the Basic and Enrollment Profile Classifications. For detailed information regarding the classification methodology, please see the Methodology section on the Classification website.
Notes: These flowcharts represent the logic of each of the six all-inclusive classifications. The numbers in the boxes indicate how many institutions are in that category. These numbers are approximate. Special focus institutions are only included in the Basic and Enrollment Profile Classifications. For detailed information regarding the classification methodology, please see the Methodology section on the Classification website.
Notes: These flowcharts represent the logic of each of the six all-inclusive classifications. The numbers in the boxes indicate how many institutions are in that category. These numbers are approximate. Special focus institutions are only included in the Basic and Enrollment Profile Classifications. For detailed information regarding the classification methodology, please see the Methodology section on the Classification website.
Notes: These flowcharts represent the logic of each of the six all-inclusive classifications. The numbers in the boxes indicate how many institutions are in that category. These numbers are approximate. Special focus institutions are only included in the Basic and Enrollment Profile Classifications. For detailed information regarding the classification methodology, please see the Methodology section on the Classification website.
Notes: These flowcharts represent the logic of each of the six all-inclusive classifications. The numbers in the boxes indicate how many institutions are in that category. These numbers are approximate. Special focus institutions are only included in the Basic and Enrollment Profile Classifications. For detailed information regarding the classification methodology, please see the Methodology section on the Classification website.
Notes: These flowcharts represent the logic of each of the six all-inclusive classifications. The numbers in the boxes indicate how many institutions are in that category. These numbers are approximate. Special focus institutions are only included in the Basic and Enrollment Profile Classifications. For detailed information regarding the classification methodology, please see the Methodology section on the Classification website.
Basic Classification
(four-year institutions or above)

All institutions (N = 4633)

Four-year, Special Focus and Tribal Institutions (N=2713)

Two-year institutions (N = 1920)
See page 1

- Doctorate Granting Institutions (N=294)
  - Very High Research Activity
  - High Research Activity
  - Research University
    - RU/VAH
    - RU/H
    - DRU
  - Masters Institutions (N=728)
    - Larger
    - Medium
    - Smaller
    - Master's L
    - Master's M
    - Master's S
  - Baccalaureate Institutions (N=808)
    - A&S
    - Diverse
    - Bac/Assoc
    - Bac/ A&S
    - Bac/ Diverse
    - Bac/ Assoc
    - Spec/ Faith
    - Spec/ Medical
    - Spec/ Health
    - Spec/ Engg
    - Spec/ Tech
    - Spec/ Bus
    - Spec/ Arts
    - Spec/ Law
    - Spec/ Other
  - Special Focus Institutions (N=651)
    - Theological
    - Other Health
    - Technology
    - Business
    - Art
    - Law
    - Other
  - Tribal Colleges (N=32)

Notes: These flowcharts represent the logic of each of the six all-inclusive classifications. The numbers in the boxes indicate how many institutions are in that category. These numbers are approximate. Special focus institutions are only included in the Basic and Enrollment Profile Classifications. For detailed information regarding the classification methodology, please see the Methodology section on the Classification website.